

44th BAROQUE WEEK 14th-21st AUGUST 2022

APPLICATION FORM (SOLO SINGERS)

We expect that the Covid situation will allow the course to take place, but the following booking conditions apply:

- Should the course be cancelled due to Covid, there will be no invitation or expectation to donate deposits; all tutors will be engaged on the basis that they will only be paid if the course takes place, and all participants' fees will be refunded if the course is cancelled.
- No participant or tutor may attend if they have any Covid symptoms or have been advised to self-isolate.
- We will refund all fees if a participant has to withdraw for Covid reasons (including international travel restrictions) one month or more before the course; if the withdrawal is within one month of the start of the course we will endeavour to return all or part of the fees at the Trustees' discretion, subject to any costs that Baroque Week incurs in respect of that person's attendance.

The cost for 2022 is £800; the non-resident rate is £580 (including all meals except breakfast) for those who live locally or prefer to find their own B&B. Non-participant partners can share your room at a cost of £430 (after twin room discount) for accommodation and meals. En-suite bedrooms are allocated to those who apply first. Those who bring a keyboard and tune it daily receive a £50 discount.

- Please note the following special accommodation or dietary requirements (including if vegetarian):
- I would like to share a twin room with the following person for a discount of £25 each:
- I will bring a keyboard instrument. Type/Size/Pitch of instrument:

I am applying to take part in solo and one-to-a-part singing in tutor-led sessions. (If you are principally an instrumentalist then please also complete the instrumental section at the bottom of the form.)

The course is principally for solo singers and for players of baroque instruments at A=415, although there may be some opportunities to sing or play at A=440 or A=392. Please note that the emphasis of the course is on Chamber Music. Playing and singing is mostly one-to-a-part and you should be a competent sight-reader and able to hold a part confidently in a small ensemble. A reasonably high level of musical ability and technical competence is needed in order to benefit from detailed coaching in stylistic matters even when sight-reading.

Selection Criteria

- We will not confirm places for specialist singers until February, but please apply as soon as possible, as knowing who is applying will help us plan repertoire etc. (Also, ensuite bedrooms are allocated in order of application.) If vacancies remain after February, new applicants will be considered as and when they apply.
- We can accept a maximum of 10 specialist singers – SSSAATTBB (You can also play an instrument in some sessions if you wish.) Additional singers (i.e. instrumentalists who also wish to sing solo/one-to-a-part) may be included in tutor-led sessions where the repertoire and numbers allow, but we cannot guarantee how many sessions this will involve.
- Sight singing and/or fast learning ability. Although we will let you know about as much music as we can in advance, there will inevitably be a considerable amount of sight-reading involved in this course, as we usually explore different repertoire in nearly every session. Applicants need to indicate an appropriate level of skill and experience to ensure that the course is suitable for them. If you attended in 2019 or 2021 we will take into account your ability shown on that course. If you feel that your skills have developed since you last attended, please provide information/evidence.
- Range and type of voice. We need to make coherent one-to-a-part groups of singers. In order to form two SSATB consorts, at least two of the sopranos must be comfortable in the higher range to sing Soprano 1 parts. If we are unable to create two consorts SSATB or SATB from suitable applicants, we may need to limit numbers to a single consort.

Singers who are new to Baroque Week or who did not attend in either 2019 or 2021 should attach a short recording.
